

Survivor-Centred Visual Narratives

Stereotype Scenario Cards

 Cut out the following cards:

A student is assumed to be bad at a subject because of how they look. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?	Someone is excluded from a group because of an assumption about their background. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?
A social media trend makes fun of a group of people in a way that seems “harmless.” <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?	A news story focuses on one example and makes it seem like it represents everyone. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?
A meme exaggerates traits of a group for humour. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?	A student is expected to be good at a subject because of something about their background. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?
A person is assumed to be athletic because of their height. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?	A student is told, “You don’t act like most people from ____.” <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What stereotype might be at play?2. How could this affect the person?3. What could happen if this thinking continues?